HAITI EDUCATION

FORT-JACQUES, HAITI | FIELD MINISTRY UPDATE

Back to His Desk

This is Doudy. He is one of the 81 children back in class at the school in Fort-Jacques this year, and that smile is hard to miss.

His school year did not start the way anyone hoped. Safety concerns pushed the first day back a week, and at first only a few children came. But little by little, more students returned, and now Doudy and his classmates are back at their desks, excited and ready to learn. You are part of the reason they can be.

More Than a Classroom

In a country facing so much uncertainty, school gives children a sense of normalcy and a safe place to learn. For parents who worry about their children's future, that steady place means a great deal.

Last year, 135 students were enrolled. The team is praying that parents will soon feel comfortable sending their children back, until every seat is filled again.

Behind Every Classroom, a Teacher

Every day, the teachers pray with the children, asking God to guide and protect them, bless their families, and help them grow in wisdom. They remind each student that their education is part of preparing them for the future God has planned for their lives.

And the school is praying for you too. The team is deeply thankful for your partnership and for the way God uses your support to make a difference in these children's lives.

A Hot Meal Before Home

Can you imagine going to school without breakfast or even any form of nutrition during the day? For many children, this is their reality.

Before the children head home each day, every student receives a hot, full protein meal. For many of them, it is the only meal of their day. The teachers and staff are fed too.

Thanks to sponsors and donors like you, there has been enough to feed every child and every staff member. That hot meal at the end of the school day is your generosity at work.

How You Can Pray

We invite you to join us in praying for the education in Haiti in the following areas:

- Safety and peace: safety for everyone at the school and peace for Haiti.
- Health and wisdom: for the teachers, staff, and students.
- Families: a move of God in the lives of parents who do not yet know Him.
- Provision: new donors and sponsors, so the school can meet its commitments to staff and students.

Young students with their teacher, ready to learn.

thank you!

Every prayer and gift reaches a classroom in Fort-Jacques and a warm meal at day's end. The school sends a heartfelt thank you, and so do we.

BE PART OF WHAT COMES NEXT

SCAN ME

The school is still looking for new donors and monthly sponsors to meet its commitments to staff and students. As the team trusts God for growth and provision this year, your gift helps keep children learning and a hot meal on the table at the end of each school day.
