Because of You, Hope Has No Borders

Through your prayers, trust, and faithful generosity, God continues to use Casa Compasiva to bring hope, compassionate care, and the love of Christ to families across Oaxaca. Casa Compasiva is becoming more than a birthing center. It is expanding into a ministry that serves the whole family, including women, children, and men. Here is a glimpse of what your partnership made possible this season, and how you can join us in expanding this ministry and continuing to bring Christ-centered care, hope, and transformation to entire families.

Safe Births, Despite New Regulations

Because of your support, Casa Compasiva found a way forward. As regulations changed this year, we were able to partner with Santa Úrsula, a private clinic in Oaxaca, so we could continue providing the loving, family-centered birth care our families trust.

Amadeus and Katerin were among the first to experience this partnership. They welcomed their first baby in a peaceful, joyful environment and shared that they felt truly valued.

Bringing Compassion and Hope to the Mixteca Region

Because of God's faithfulness and your support, the recent ministry trip to the Mixteca region was possible. A team comprised of 23 doctors, dentists, nurses, doulas, and pastors from Canada, Mexico, and the United States served in two communities, Santiago Buena Vista and Santiago Huaucilla. For two days, they provided 126 medical and dental consultations, in addition to distributing toothbrushes and evangelistic pamphlets to the families.

The team was able to serve people in practical ways while opening meaningful doors to share the love and hope of Christ. The impact reached far beyond the clinics themselves. Eight people made decisions to follow Christ, including individuals who found hope amid deep struggles with depression, guilt, and rejection. Local churches and community authorities welcomed the team, expressed their gratitude, and invited them to return. The trip was a powerful reminder that God uses every willing heart, prayer, and act of service to bring His love to communities and expand His Kingdom.

Confidence, Knowledge, and Hope

The demand for our prenatal classes continues to grow, allowing us to walk alongside more couples with personalized care and Christ-centered encouragement. Each class ends with a devotional, creating meaningful opportunities to point them to the hope we have in Christ. Your partnership helps make this continued growth possible, equipping Casa Compasiva to serve families more effectively and expand these services to more communities.

Honoring Traditions with Cultural Postpartum Care

Herbal postpartum baths remain one of Casa Compasiva's most requested services, offering new mothers restorative care rooted in the rich traditions of Oaxaca. The practice includes the traditional rebozo hip-closing technique, passed down through generations of Indigenous midwives. Our doulas receive specialized training to provide this care safely while honoring the cultural traditions and needs of every family.
